COMMUNITY AND INTEREST COMPANY AND ASSET LOCK

2. Community Interest Company

The Company is to be a community interest company.

3. Asset Lock

3.1 The Company shall not transfer any of its assets other than for full consideration.

3.2 Provided the conditions in Article 3.3 are satisfied, Article 3.1 shall not apply to:

- (a) the transfer of assets to any specified asset-locked body, or (with the consent of the Regulator) to any other asset-locked body; and
- (b) the transfer of assets made for the benefit of the community other than by way of a transfer of assets into an asset-locked body.

3.3 The conditions are that the transfer of assets must comply with any restrictions on the transfer of assets for less than full consideration which may be set out elsewhere in the Memorandum and Articles of the Company.

3.4 If:

the Company is wound up under the Insolvency Act 1986; and all its liabilities have been satisfied

any residual assets shall be given or transferred to the asset-locked bodies specified in Article 3.5 below.

3.5 For the purposes of this Article 3, the following asset-locked bodies are specified as potential recipients of the Company's assets under Articles 3.2 and 3.4 on an equal basis:

4. Not for profit

OBJECTS, POWERS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

5. Objects

The objects of the Company are to carry on activities which benefit the community and in particular (without limitation) to develop and operate a network to support and encourage businesses in the Forres Area, to act as a collective business voice with bodies such as local authorities and development agencies and with the public, to support business development and to undertake any other relevant activities for the benefit of the members, the community or the Company.

6. Powers

To further its objects the Company may do all such lawful things as may further the Company's objects and, in particular, but, without limitation, may borrow or raise and secure the payment of money for any purpose including for the purposes of investment or of raising funds.

7. Liability of members

The liability of each member is limited to £1, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up while they are a member or within one year after they cease to be a member, for:

- 7.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before they cease to be a member;
- 7.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
- 7.3 adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

8. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

9. Members' reserve power

9.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specific action.

9.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

10. Chair

The Directors may appoint one of their number to be the chair of the Directors for such term of office as they determine and may at any time remove them from office.

11. Directors may delegate

11.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:

to such person or committee;

by such means (including by power of attorney);

to such an extent;

in relation to such matters or territories; and on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

11.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

11.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

12. Committees

12.1 Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.

- 12.2 The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

13. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 13.1 Unless otherwise determined by the members by ordinary resolution the maximum number of Directors shall be 11 (a maximum of 2 of which may be Directors appointed in accordance with Article 23.2(b)) and the minimum number of Directors shall be 5.
- 13.2 Any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 19.

14. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 14.1 Two Directors may (and the Secretary, if any, must at the request of two Directors) call a Directors' meeting.
- 14.2 A Directors' meeting must be called by at least seven Clear Days' notice unless either:
all the Directors agree; or urgent circumstances require shorter notice.
- 14.3 Notice of Directors' meetings must be given to each Director.
- 14.4 Every notice calling a Directors' meeting must specify:
the place, day and time of the meeting; and if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 14.5 Notice of Directors' meetings need not be in Writing.
- 14.6 Notice of Directors' meetings may be sent by Electronic Means to an Address provided by the Director for the purpose.
- 14.7 There shall be 3 or more Directors' meetings each year.

15. Participation in Directors' meetings

- 15.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:
the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

15.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

15.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

16. Quorum for Directors' meetings

16.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

16.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than half of the total number of Directors.

16.3 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

to appoint further Directors; or to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further Directors.

17. Chairing of Directors' meetings

The Chair, if any, or in their absence another Director nominated by the Directors present shall preside as chair of each Directors' meeting.

18. Decision making at a meeting

18.1 Questions arising at a Directors' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

18.2 In all proceedings of Directors each Director must not have more than one vote.

18.3 In case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

19. Decisions without a meeting

19.1 The Directors may take a unanimous decision without a Directors' meeting by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by Electronic Means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in Writing, copies of which have been signed by each Director or to which each Director has otherwise indicated agreement in Writing.

19.2 A decision which is made in accordance with Article 19.1 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

approval from each Director must be received by one person being either such person as all the Directors have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Directors;

following receipt of responses from all of the Directors, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Directors by any means whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Directors in accordance with this Article 19.2;

the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval;

the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 50.

20. Conflicts of interest

20.1 Whenever a Director finds himself in a situation that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, they must declare their interest to the Directors unless, or except to the extent that, the other Directors are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.

20.2 If any question arises as to whether a Director has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the other Directors.

20.3 Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting or decided in accordance with Article 19 and a Director has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 21, they must:

remain only for such part of the meeting as in the view of the other Directors is necessary to inform the debate;

not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and

withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

20.4 When a Director has a Conflict of Interest which they have declared to the Directors, they shall not be in breach of their duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by them.

21. Directors' power to authorise a conflict of interest

21.1 The Directors have power to authorise a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest provided:

in relation to the decision to authorise a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest, the conflicted Director must comply with Article 20.3;

in authorising a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest, the Directors can decide the manner in which the Conflict of Interest may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the Director with a Conflict of Interest can participate in a vote on the matter in respect of which the Conflict of Interest has arisen and can be counted in the quorum;

the decision to authorise a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest can impose such terms as the Directors think fit and is subject always to their right to vary or terminate the authorisation.

- 21.2 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 21.1 then, even if they have been authorised to remain at the meeting by the other Directors, the Director may absent themselves from meetings of the Directors at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.
- 21.3 A Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which they derive from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 21.1 (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

22. Register of Directors' interests

The Directors shall cause a register of Directors' interests to be kept. A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which they have in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

23. Methods of appointing Directors

- 23.1 Those persons notified to the Registrar of Companies as the first Directors of the Company shall be the first Directors.
- 23.2 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director:
- (a) by ordinary resolution; or

- 23.3 In any case where, as a result of death, the Company has no members and no Directors, the personal representatives of the last member to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a member.
- 23.4 For the purposes of Article 23.3, where two or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.

24. Termination of Director's appointment

- 24.1 At the first annual general meeting of the Company all the Directors shall retire from office, and at the annual general meeting in every subsequent year one-third of the Directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest one-third, shall retire from office.
- 24.2 The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

- 24.3 A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election but no Director shall serve for more than 9 years consecutively.
- 24.4 Directors who are appointed by a decision of the Directors shall hold office from the date of their appointment until the next annual general meeting. They shall be eligible for re-appointment by a decision of the Directors whose office is confirmed at the annual general meeting.
- 24.5 A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:
- (a) that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts, Articles, or is prohibited from being a Director by law;
 - (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person, or an order is made against that person in individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy;
 - (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
 - (d) notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when such resignation has taken effect);
 - (e) the Director fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Directors and the Directors resolve that the Director be removed for this reason; or
 - (f) at a general meeting of the Company, a resolution is passed that the Director be removed from office, provided the meeting has invited the views of the Director concerned and considered the matter in the light of such views.

25. Directors' remuneration

Directors will not be entitled to remuneration, other than reasonable expenses, for their services in the capacity of Directors of the Company.

26. Directors' expenses

The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- (a) meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;
- (b) general meetings; or
- (c) separate meetings of any class of members or of the holders of any debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

27. Becoming a member

- 27.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first members of the Company.
- 27.2 Such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Company.
- 27.3 No person shall be admitted a member of the Company unless they are approved by the Directors.
- 27.4 Every person who wishes to become a member shall deliver to the Company an application for membership in such form (and containing such information) as the Directors require and executed by them.

- 27.8 Members will be required to pay an annual subscription to the Company, at a rate set by the Directors from time to time.

28. Termination of membership

- 28.1 Membership is not transferable to anyone else.
- 28.2 Membership is terminated if:

the member dies or ceases to exist;

at a meeting of the Directors at which at least half of the Directors are present, a resolution is passed resolving that the member be expelled on the ground that their continued membership is harmful to or is likely to become harmful to the interests of the Company. Such a resolution may not be passed unless the member has been given at least 14 Clear Days' notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify expulsion, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by or of making written representations to the Directors. A member expelled by such a resolution will nevertheless remain liable to pay to the Company any subscription or other sum owed by them.

32. Service of notice

Notice of general meetings must be given in accordance with the Articles to every member and to the Directors.

33. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 33.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 33.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
 - that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 33.3 The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 33.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 33.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

34. Quorum for general meetings

- 34.1 No business (other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting) may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 34.2 Ten persons entitled to vote on the business to be transacted (each being a member or a proxy for a member); or 10% of the total membership (represented in person or by proxy), whichever is greater, shall be a quorum.
- 34.3 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting those present and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

35. Chairing general meetings

- 35.1 The Chair (if any) or in their absence some other Director nominated by the Directors will preside as chair of every general meeting.
- 35.2 If neither the Chair nor such other Director nominated in accordance with Article 35.1 (if any) is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting and, if there is only one Director present and willing to act, they shall be chair of the meeting.
- 35.3 If no Director is willing to act as chair of the meeting, or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting, save that a proxy holder who is not a member entitled to vote shall not be entitled to be appointed chair of the meeting.

36. Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-members

- 36.1 A Director may, even if not a member, attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 36.2 The chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not members of the Company to attend and speak at a general meeting.

to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

- 37.5 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

38. Voting: general

- 38.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

- 38.2 A person who is not a member of the Company shall not have any right to vote at a general meeting of the Company; but this is without prejudice to any right to vote on a resolution affecting the rights attached to a class of the Company's debentures.

- 38.3 Article 38.2 shall not prevent a person who is a proxy for a member from voting at a general meeting of the Company.

39. Votes

- 39.1 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting every person present in person (whether a member or proxy) and entitled to vote shall have a maximum of one vote. Any person, who, by virtue of being appointed proxy for one or more members having the right to vote at the meeting, may vote on behalf of each such member as if they were present at the meeting.

- 39.2 On a vote on a resolution on a poll at a meeting every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. Any person, who, by virtue of being appointed proxy for one or more members having the right to vote at the meeting, may vote on behalf of each such member as if they were present at the meeting.

- 39.3 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

- 39.4 No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies or other obligations owed by them, or by the business or organisation which has authorised them, to the Company have been paid or discharged.

39.5 The following provisions apply to any Corporate Member a Corporate Member shall nominate an individual to act as its representative (“a Corporate Representative”) at any meeting of the Company;

the Corporate Member must give notice in Writing to the Company of the name of its Corporate Representative. The Corporate Representative will not be entitled to represent the Corporate Member at any meeting of the Company unless such notice has been received by the Company. The Corporate Representative may continue to represent the Corporate Member until notice in Writing is received by the Company to the contrary;

a Corporate Member may appoint a Corporate Representative to represent it at a particular meeting of the Company or at all meetings of the Company until notice in Writing to the contrary is received by the Company;

any notice in Writing received by the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the Corporate Representative’s authority to represent the Corporate Member or that their authority has been revoked. The Company shall not be required to consider whether the Corporate Representative has been properly appointed by the Corporate Member;

an individual appointed by a Corporate Member to act as its Corporate Representative is entitled to exercise (on behalf of the Corporate Member) the same powers as the Corporate Member could exercise if it were an individual member; on a vote on a resolution at a meeting of the Company, the Corporate Representative has the same voting rights as the Corporate Member would be entitled to if it was an individual member present in person at the meeting; and the power to appoint a Corporate Representative under this Article 39.5 is without prejudice to any rights which the Corporate Member has under the Companies Acts and the Articles to appoint a proxy or a corporate representative.

40. Members’ conflict of interest

40.1 Whenever a member finds themselves in a situation in relation to a general meeting that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, they must declare their interest to the Directors unless, or except to the extent that, the Directors are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.

40.1 If any question arises as to whether a member has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the Directors.

40.2 Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting and a member has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 41, they must:

remain only for such part of the meeting as in the view of the Directors is necessary to inform the debate;

not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and

withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

40.3 When a member has a Conflict of Interest which they have declared to the Directors, they shall not be in breach of their duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by them.

41. Directors' power to authorise a conflict of interest

41.1 The Directors have power to authorise a member to be in a position of Conflict of Interest provided:

in relation to the decision to authorise a member to be in a position of Conflict of Interest, the conflicted member must comply with Article 40.1;

in authorising a member to be in a position of Conflict of Interest, the Directors can decide the manner in which the Conflict of Interest may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the member with a Conflict of Interest can participate in a vote on the matter and can be counted in the quorum;

the decision to authorise a member to be in a position of Conflict of Interest can impose such terms as the Directors think fit and is subject always to their right to vary or terminate the authorisation.

41.2 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 21.1 then, even if they have been authorised to remain at the meeting by the Directors, the member may absent themselves from meetings of the members at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.

41.3 A member shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which they derive from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 21.1 (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

42. Poll votes

42.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

42.2 A poll may be demanded by:

the chair of the meeting;

the Directors;

two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution;

any person, who, by virtue of being appointed proxy for one or more members having the right to vote at the meeting, holds two or more votes; or a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution.

42.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

the poll has not yet been taken; and the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

42.4 Polls must be taken at such time and in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs.

43. Errors and disputes

43.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

43.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

44. Content of proxy notices

44.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "Proxy Notice") which:

(a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

(b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and

(d) is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

44.2 The Company may require Proxy Notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

44.3 Proxy Notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

44.4 Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

(a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

(b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

45. Delivery of proxy notices

45.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

- 45.2 An appointment under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in Writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the Proxy Notice was given.
- 45.3 A notice revoking the appointment of a proxy only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

46. Amendments to resolutions

- 46.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in Writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine); and the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

- 46.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

- 46.3 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

47. Written resolutions

- 47.1 Subject to Article 47.3, a written resolution of the Company passed in accordance with this Article 47 shall have effect as if passed by the Company in general meeting:

A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members.

A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as a special resolution.

- 47.2 In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Company the eligible members are the members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution.
- 47.3 A members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Director before the expiration of their term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.
- 47.4 A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every member together with a statement informing the member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse.
- 47.5 A member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from them an authenticated Document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating their agreement to the resolution.

If the Document is sent to the Company in Hard Copy Form, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.

If the Document is sent to the Company by Electronic Means, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature or if the identity of the member is confirmed in a manner agreed by the Directors or if it is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the member and the Company has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement or if it is from an Address notified by the member to the Company for the purposes of receiving Documents or information by Electronic Means.

- 47.6 A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.
- 47.7 A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

49. Irregularities

The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll or the passing of a written resolution or the making of any decision shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including any accidental omission to give or any non-receipt of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting or by reason of any business being considered which is not referred to in the notice unless a provision of the Companies Acts specifies that such informality, irregularity or want of qualification shall invalidate it.

and any such minute, if purported to be signed (or in the case of minutes of Directors' meetings signed or authenticated) by the chair of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall, as against any member or Director of the Company, be sufficient evidence of the proceedings.

50.2 The minutes must be kept for at least ten years from the date of the meeting, resolution or decision.

51. Records and accounts

The Directors shall comply with the requirements of the Companies Acts as to maintaining a members' register, keeping financial records, the audit or examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Regulator of:

52.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.
